Admission Cancellation by Freshly Admitted Students: Tuition fee paid by the student is refundable, according to the following schedule (approved by HEC Policy):

- a. Full (100%) fee refund if admission is cancelled up to the 10th day.
- b. 80% fee refund if admission is cancelled up to the 15th day.
- c. 60% fee refund if admission is cancelled up to the 20th day.

- d. 50% fee refund if admission is cancelled up to the 30th day.
- e. No fee refund if admission is cancelled from the 31st day onwards.

The count of days used to determine the refund amount starts from the date of convening of classes. The tuition-fee refund timelines include weekends. The admission fee ie 1st Installment is NOT refundable in any circumstances.

4.1-A Admission Cancellation by Freshly Admitted ineligible students

Ineligible students are defined as those newly admitted candidates who met the admission criteria at the time of admission (based on first-year intermediate or equivalent exam results) but later fail to meet the minimum required marks after the declaration of their second year (first annual) results.

Only the results of intermediate or equivalent examinations conducted up to and including the first annual examination of the admission year will be considered for eligibility. Any examination results declared after the first annual, or results of exams taken in subsequent attempts, will not be accepted for determining eligibility.

If a student is declared ineligible based on these final results, they are entitled to a fee refund only if they inform the Admission Office / Students Section at UET, Lahore (Main Campus) within one month of the result declaration.

No fee refund will be granted if the student fails to notify the administration within the specified time. After this period, all deposited dues and fees, including tuition fees, will be non-refundable.

4.1-B Admission Cancellation Policy for Non-Payment of Second Installment

“After securing provisional admission by paying 1st installment, it is necessary to submit the 2nd installment before commencement of classes. Failing to which may lead to cancellation of provisional admission and the seat may be awarded to the next candidate in merit. However, an option of restore will still be available, not necessarily in the same discipline, since this would depend on the availability of seat and merit after Convener Admission Committee approval.”

4.5 Fee Transfer for freshly admitted student

4.5.1 A student, during admission process who transfers to another program / campus within the university will be eligible for transfer to the new programs. If there's difference of fee in between the two programs of that university than:

- a. In case the fee difference is positive then the difference will be paid by the student.
- b. In case the fee difference is negative then the difference will be adjusted in next semesters.
